A QUICK AFFAIR.
Salt Lake City, Utah.
The record of the marriage license bureau of January 12th at Salt Lake City, Utah reads, "George Conn and Lorenza McMillan, ages 34 and 28 respectively"; but to the greater number of their Kansas City friends, they are known as "Pepp" and "Bobbie". The old train fairly crept along all the way, and I was compelled to lay over six hours in Denver. Just think of it! remarked the bride-elect as Bobbie took the grip from her hand and led her to a waiting auto. The rest of the conversation was lost to your correspondent as the driver started the car and yelled "where?" "To the court house," quickly answered the anxious bride-groom elect. It was then 6:40 p. m. and so thorough were the arrangements that by 7:20 in the presence of a few friends at the home of O. D. Jackson, 3574 South Second East street Rev. Wilkinson of the Cavalry Baptist church, pronounced them man and wife.

Although that will be their future home address, Mr. Conn gave those present little time to get acquainted with his bride, for they were whisked away to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Frank Neal, where a sumptuous wedding supper was served. Mr. Conn is the efficient assistant of Mr. A. Frank Neal at the Hotel Utah and has made a host of friends, with both patrons and employees. We wish for him and his, nothing but that which is good.

Very truly,
H. W. OSBORNE.

IN MEMORIAM.

In fond memory of W. G. Allen who died January 10, 1914, one year ago today.

How long and dreary has been the year.
Since our boy passed away.
His smiling face and words of cheer.
We miss them more each day.
Day by day we are learning
To say, "God's will be done";
But yet our hearts are ever yearning
To behold you again, my son, our brother.

PLATTSBURG, MO.
This town is well represented in Bell Jan 21
fraternal circles. We have local numbers in Masons, Knights of Tabor and U. B. F.'s. Many members of these organizations are prominent in Grand Lodge affairs as will be seen by the following: Rev. H. W. Botts, Grand Chaplain U. B. F.'s; Mr. Wm. Green G. T. of Knights of Tabor and Prof. C. W. Black D. G. M. of U. B. F.'s. There are three churches Baptist, Methodist and Christian, each having comfortable edifices and a good membership. The public school ranks high and offers many educational advantages not found in other schools of its size. Some of the best farms are owned by Negro farmers. There are 30 Negro farmers, 25 of whom own their farms. We have two colored stores which receive liberal patronage from our people. Rev. J. S. Henry of Trenton conducted services at the Baptist church Sunday. Quarterly meeting was held Sunday at the A. M. E. church. Rev. M. S. Bryant presiding elder. The B. Y. P. U. under the leadership of Prof. C. W. Black is increasing in interest and membership. Sister Sarah Botts is on the sick list and her friends hope for her a speedy recovery. Read the Sun for information on the progress of the Negro.

BUTTE, MONT.
Jerry Larkins, 9 East Galena street, Butte, Mont., proprietor of the Up to Date Tonsorial Parlor is the agent for the Kansas City Sun and the Chicago Defender. These papers can be had every Monday morning by calling at the shop or phoning independent phone 5708 and a paper will be delivered to your address. The Crisis is also for sale. Leave your orders for any of these papers and see what progress the race is making. Let Larkins help you get them.

WEIR, KANSAS.
The Junior Choir of St. John Baptist church gave a reception at the residence of Miss Ethel Sublett Friday evening, January 15. The house was beautifully decorated and at a late hour a three course luncheon was served. The A. M. E. church gave a reception in honor of P. E. Rev. J. T. Smith Monday night, January 18, and a splendid program was rendered. The Junior choir of St. John Baptist church furnished the music.
